We Want Good Roads TOO!!

As Well As Good Programs for

Health	Banking	Labor
Welfare	Audits	Pardons . . . Parole
Education	Commerce	Revenue Collections
Veterans Service	Conservation	Treasury Control
Agriculture Markets	Courts	Game and Fish

in fact ALL Services and Departments of State Government.

To safeguard all these services and the rights of the people it is necessary to preserve the sound fiscal and budgetary system now in use . . . All state revenue now goes into the General Fund and is appropriated by the elected representatives of the people, THE LEGISLATURE.

What does Constitutional Amendment No. 2 propose? . . . It proposes that "The General Assembly shall in each General Appropriation Act make the aggregate of the fixed appropriations for highway purposes and amount NOT LESS THAN the total motor fuel and motor vehicle license taxes received by the State Treasury for the immediately preceding year, less amounts of refunds, rebates and collection costs . . . Said funds are hereby allocated to the Highway Department and shall be utilized for highway improvement, including construction and maintenance."

What is meant by ALLOCATION of State funds? . . . Allocation is the system of distribution of State funds which provides that income from a specific tax shall go for a specific designated purpose and no other.

Does the Minimum Foundation Program for Education GUARANTEE funds for Public Schools, University System and Teachers Retirement? . . . No. MFPE is a method (formula) for distributing State funds. This formula is used to distribute whatever funds are appropriated by the General Assembly.

Is there any valid reason why State funds to the Highway Department for road construction, maintenance and repair should be GUARANTEED by constitutional provision, while all other Departments of State Government are required to justify expenditures and requests for State Funds to the General Assembly? . . . It is suggested that Heads of all Departments of State Government, Boards of Education, State Board of Regents, Public School and University teachers, school bus drivers, parents of children—ALL PEOPLE—ask themselves this question.

Proposing a return to ALLOCATIONS the Georgia Education Association is asking the Highway Department to manifest a confidence in the Legislature

Ole Bull's America

FEW YOUNGER generation Americans are familiar with the name of the great Norwegian violinist, Ole Bull. His love of American ideals of freedom which inspired a mass migration of his countrymen to the United States, won him a place in history that may be remembered longer than his musical genius.

Ole Bull was born in Norway in 1810. He first came to America in 1842 and was so impressed with the new land of freedom that he soon became an American citizen. He returned repeatedly to Norway, which was subject to the Swedish king, in an attempt to inspire his homeland with the spirit of freedom that pervaded his newly adopted country. Finally, disgusted with the possibility of reviving his own native land, he conceived the idea of moving Norwegian-Americans to America, and he purchased 11,400 acres in Potter county, Pennsylvania, for New Norway. His address of welcome to arriving Norwegian settlers 100 years ago is a stirring message from a freedom-loving individual that may well be taken to heart today. He recalled for his listeners early Norwegian expeditions to the shores of America nearly a thousand years before, and said:

"But since then we learned... one of the great nations of the earth had been successful in planting colonies there. That these colonies had grown and flourished, and that, when the mother country had endeavored to impose tyrannical laws upon them, they had rebelled, and standing up boldly in the presence of mankind had declared before Almighty God, that they were free and independent—that they had been successful and had established a government with a written constitution, based upon the principles of justice and the eternal rights of humanity, that they had spread over almost the entire continent, and had become one of the leading nations of the earth, and that there a home could be found for all who sought it, that the right to labor for ourselves could not be denied us, and that our 'inalienable rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness' would be secure to us."

"Overjoyed with the light and hope which this news gave us, we have sought this country to be partakers in this liberty, to enjoy this freedom, and here in this beautiful valley we have selected our home."

Can we honestly say we are preserving Ole Bull's America today? Start in any direction, and keep going, might you not eventually get too far?

Here's The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Two hand-in-hand menaces are cramping the U.S.A. style. One is the ever-growing lack of freedom to work where, for what outfit or guy, for how much and for how long. The other is creeping Socialism that is fashioning every man's future in the mode desired by Big Govt. versus allowing each boy to fashion his own life by how much he chooses to burn the midnight oil or by the extent he desires to perspire.

Correcting these 2 menaces would be easy as pie. First, the sweet little woman could take her big hero by the scuff and plank him back on his job as she walks up to the man on the picket line and tells him to go home. He would go. That would solve the "freedom to work" problem—and in spite of labor bosses, politicians and the Lefties.

The Socialist menace is a voter's job. Women and men voters, listen to your Uncle Josephus and then check up—see if I am telling the truth or am peddling guff. No city owned, state owned, or Govt. owned property pays taxes. If Seattle takes over the street cars, Los Angeles takes over its lighting system, the Govt. takes over the power in Tennessee, and you live in Michigan or Minneapolis or far away from Seattle or Los Angeles or Tennessee, you join in just the same on the tax deficit. That folks, is Socialism. Yours with the low down,

JO SERRA.

PLAIN TALK ABOUT PROPOSED CHANGE

Speaker Declares Proposal Has Intent to Promote A More Absolute Boss Rule

(This is a brief statement prepared at the request of the editor of the Statesboro Free Press embodying points made by the speaker in a recent public address.)

(By M. NEIL ANDREWS.)

I am grateful for this opportunity to speak directly to the people of your county on an issue so important to our political freedom. If the proposed Amendment No. 1 is not defeated at the polls in November, you and I may never have another chance to vote in a free election. Our candidates will be hand-picked by a small group of politicians, and if we don't like their slate there will be nothing we can do about it.

I know you are as tired as I am of all this ranting about "blooming" and "boss rule" from Atlanta. The backers of this amendment seem to think that if they use enough scare words and hate words they can hide the real issues from the people. This amendment has nothing to do with negroes, or city-against-country, or the county unit system as it now applies in our Democratic primary.

There are four times as many white people as colored people in Georgia, and ten times as many white voters as colored voters. Does anybody really believe a so-called "boss" of only one-tenth of the voters in this state is going to control our elections?

If Amendment No. 1 is defeated we will have exactly what we have now. The Democratic primary will still be held under the county unit system, and the unit system will still be protected by law. The only possible way it could be repealed would be by an act of the Legislature, which, as you and I know, is controlled by representatives of the two-unit counties.

They are trying to scare us in this campaign in order to conceal the fact that this amendment would mean political dictatorship in Georgia. In the last five years one law after another has been passed tampering with our election machinery. There is not space here to name them all, but the worst one is the Primary Law of 1949. That law makes the state Democratic Executive Committee the final judge of who can run and who are the winners in the Democratic primary. And that law strips the courts of their traditional power to rule on those all-important questions. Now, the governor of the state—whoever he may happen to be—always names the state Democratic Executive Committee, and everybody knows it does his bidding. That means one man, the governor, now has the power to dictate who the Democratic nominees shall be.

As the law stands today we have one safeguard against this concentration of power—and that is the free general election. Heretofore if a state administration got too corrupt or too high-handed in putting over its handpicked candidates, we could still vote for a candidate of our choice in the general election. But Amendment No. 1, if passed, would destroy that precious safeguard once and for all. It would bar from the general election ballot write-ins, independents, and second-party candidates. We would have no more choice than the people of Russia or Nazi Germany.

It makes no difference what our politics are or how you stand on the county unit system, if you are a Georgian and if you value your political freedom, you should vote against Amendment No. 1 on November 4th.

JODY WOODCOCK FIVE YEARS OLD

Jody Woodcock was honored with a delightful party Saturday afternoon, October 25, given by his mother, Mrs. Joe Woodcock, Jr., in celebration of his fifth birthday.

Forty young guests were entertained at the party, which was given at the home of Mrs. Woodcock, where they enjoyed games and the playground equipment and were shown movies by Max Lockwood, recreational director.

The four-tiered birthday cake was iced in pale green and decorated with yellow, and held five yellow candles. The birthday cake was served with ice cream and punch, and the guests were given blow-out horns and suckers.

Guests included the members of Jody's kindergarten class and a few other little friends. Mrs. Woodcock was assisted by Mrs. Raymond Durden, Mrs. J. J. Durden, and Miss Bernice Woodcock. On Sunday Jody was honored by his parents with a party at his home.
